JOINT MOTION FOR ENLARGEMENT OF TIME

COME NOW the parties, by and through counsel, to request that the Court enlarge the time within which the parties may file motions in limine, jury instructions, and voir dire questions. As grounds for which the parties would state as follows:

1. Because the Court has not ruled on the defendants' motion for summary judgment, the parties are unsure of what claims and defenses should be considered in voir dire questions and, in particular, in jury instructions.
2. The parties desire a status conference with the Court prior to submitting voir dire and jury instructions.
3. Attempts were made on this date to contact the Court's law clerk to address this matter, but those attempts were unsuccessful.
4. Although this motion is being submitted by counsel for Plaintiff, it was discussed as between the parties and they have agreed on its being styled and submitted as a joint motion.

WHEREFORE, the premises considered, the parties pray that the Court will enlarge the time within which the parties may file the above referenced submissions until and through Wednesday, May 23, 2007.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this ____ 18th ____ day of May, 2007.
